

BLM Resource Advisory Councils

Partners Across The West

Ellen R. Stein

Biographical Sketch, Southwest RAC Member

Ellen Stein has a background in non-profit management, conservation and rural development and is executive director of the Mountain Studies Institute in Silverton. Prior to that, Stein directed the Community Agriculture Alliance in Steamboat Springs.

Stein began her first term on the RAC in August 2004 serving Category 3, public-at-large constituency. Having traveled to many foreign countries, Stein is fluent in both French and Bambara and is a certified EMT for San Juan County Ambulance.

Stein is a founding board member of KSJC Silverton Community Radio and enjoys mountaineering, telemarking, road cycling, mountain biking, photography and music. She enjoys her home on the Animas River in Silverton.